2                   I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

4         1. As set forth in the attached affidavits and exhibits annexed thereto, there has been unquestionably
 5         been violations of N.Y. Civil Rights Law §§ 50-51 and N.Y. General Business Law (GBL) §§ 349-350 by 6         Defendant Goodman against the Plaintiff which requires court intervention and a temporary restraining order.

7         2. Defendant Goodman (self-identified as the “Chief executive Officer” [CEO] of Multi-Media
 8         Systems (aka Software) Design, Inc. [MDSI] and 21st Century 3D [21stc3D]) has continued with the widely 9         disseminated and pervasive distribution of vindictive and hateful smear campaigns, threats and other tortious and 10         defamatory actions taken against the Plaintiff using his commercial social media empire. Mr. Goodman has 11         enlarged his attacks on the Plaintiff with the creation of a new social media podcast entitled “COUNTER
 12         LAWFARE”, released to the “CROWDSOURCE THE TRUTH” (CSTT) worldwide audience via YouTube,
 13         PATREON, Facebook, Twitter, Periscope, GAB.AI, Twitch, etc. It appears obvious that MDSI/21stc3D CEO
 14         Goodman is attempting to humiliate, retaliate and damage the reputation of the Plaintiff with new allegations
 15         against the Plaintiff (such as “mail fraud” and “fraud upon the court”) which are broadcasted to 30,000 to 45,000
 16         viewers (cumulative) in a deceptive and fraudulent manner.

17         3. Defendant (CEO) Goodman – through his companies (MDSI, 21stc3D) -- continues his on-going,
 18         open ended mockery of the Plaintiff, this lawsuit, the judiciary and the courts in general with the “COUNTER
 19         LAWFARE” podcast. As the Court will learn, Goodman wallows on camera about this present lawsuit and sees it
 20         as a source of comedy for snarky remarks and an opportunity to create more slanderous trade libel and per se
 21         defamation against the Plaintiff (using terms such as “Clinton-esque lawsuits”, “fake lawsuits”, “mail fraud”, etc.).
 22         CEO Goodman’s on-going prima facia tortious conduct (defamation per se, trade libel, misappropriation of 23         copyrighted material, etc.) through his companies only exacerbates the adjudication of this controversy before the 24         Court. Goodman’s present misconduct has now been institutionalized on the weekly podcast “COUNTER
 25         LAWFARE” which dispenses advice for pro se litigants. The very nature of the MDSI/21stc3D “COUNTER
 26         LAWFARE” podcasts smacks of the Unauthorized Practice of Law (UPL) as Goodman dispenses legal advice and

1 opinion. As “COUNTER LAWFARE” smacks of a UPL institution, acting in his scope of a private attorney
 2 general, the Plaintiff has reported the UPL podcast to the Supreme Court of the State of Arizona (the latest victim of
 3 Goodman). The obvious purpose of the “COUNTER LAWFARE” podcast is to incite mob rule action against
 4 members of the state and federal judiciary, bar associations and the Plaintiff for the benefit of Defendant (CEO)
 5 Goodman’s sidekicks (like Michael J. Barden).

7 II. STATEMENT OF APPLICABLE FACTS

9 1. As depicted in EXHIBIT ONE [Exh.1], of the attached verified exhibits list, Goodman describes 10 his expansive social media empire at time mark 01:52.

11 01:52 GOODMAN: As well as all the platforms we’re on, that’s gonna be YouTube, Facebook, GAB.AI, 12 DLive, VK.com, Twitch – trying to spread the word as far and wide as possible.
[emphasis added]

13 (see YouTube video production at Internet URL <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hnqaTubTLLw&t=1s> ) entitled “Tonight Only ON 14 Patreon The Intelligence Assessment with Kevin Shipp – Targeted Individuals”, posted 10/25/2018 viewed 1,422 times at the time of this writing. [Exh.1]

15

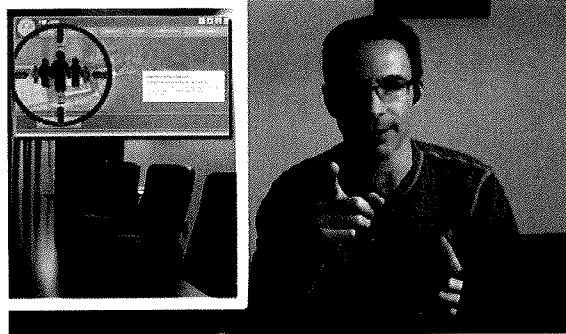

16 2. Goodman then continues in the video ([Exh.1]) to state that the Plaintiff is harassing one of his 17 sidekicks – alleged white nationalist Michael J. Bardon, of Avondale, AZ, -- who has recently pled guilty to the 18 charge of Disorderly Conduct with a Firearm (court record attached as EXHIBIT TWO [Exh.2]) and has appeared
 19 on at least six (6) Goodman podcasts. Goodman and his latest sidekick (Brian Vukadinovich of Valparaiso, Indiana)
 20 have been providing with Mr. Barden quasi-legal advice via the “COUNTER LAWFARE” podcast. As always, the 21 conversation is turned on the Plaintiff.

24 04:17 GOODMAN: I invite people to visit Michael Barden’s page at PATREON.COM/MichaelJBarden.
 25 Michael has done a number of shows here at CrowdSource The Truth and he actually has 26 come under fire by an individual who lives in Mountain Town [implied to be the Plaintiff] and is the brother of another very popular YouTuber, together the two of them are over 13 feet tall. That’s a number that’s unlucky for sum. I don’t know why this

'actor' – he's actin all the time – but, he's now targeting Michael. Why would he do that? He claims there is no such thing as targeted individuals yet he himself is engaging in harassment. Opps, did you get that? [points to camera, shown below]. Did you get that Dave? Transcribe it, put it in a lawsuit. [emphasis added] [Exh.1]

3. The “harassment” that Goodman is complaining about (with regards to Mr. Barden) is the transmission of a pre-witness evidence preservation notice sent to Mr. Barden’s criminal defense attorney in Arizona, attached as EXHIBIT THREE [Exh.3]. The pre-witness evidence preservation e-mail message [Exh.3] was sent as a standard extra-judicial precaution to a potential witness (via his attorney) to this present litigation pursuant to New York Civil Practice Law and Rules (CPLR) § 3113. CPLR § 3113 is specifically referenced in the preservation notice sent to Mr. Barden’s attorney – which was NOT sent to Mr. Barden. This pre-witness evidence preservation notice would seem like a prudent undertaken considering that Mr. Barden has participated in at least six (6) podcasts with MDSI/21stc3D CEO Goodman.

4. Mr. Barden has even produced his own YouTube video production describing this event (see Internet URL: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Ifan8-b2mFw&t=7s>; entitled, Targeted Individual Michael Barden weird day before court.”, 10/15/2018, 1,687 views. [Attached as EXHIBIT FOUR Exh.4]).

04:19 BARDEN: I got a call from my attorney today. Notifying me that this guy Dave Sweigert, who I have never even seen his face before, never talked to the guy, never met him in my life, he is making YouTube videos about me I guess. Trying to discredit me. Which is interesting because we have never had any interaction in our life. He must be doing some kind of intel about me, otherwise how would he know anything about me. Uh, but this guy sent my attorney some kind of letter saying that they want me to retain all my YouTube videos, all of my contact with Jason Goodman. To be a witness in their , their case. Their civil suit against Jason Goodman. [emphasis added] [Exh.4]

5. For the record, Mr. Goodman's other guest in the 10/25/2018 triangulation interview (ex-CIA disgruntled employee Kevin Shipp see [Exh.1]) also received a nearly identical pre-witness evidence preservation notice; attached as EXHIBIT 5 [Exh.5].

6. Only two days before the 10/25/2018 triangulation interview to double-team the Plaintiff with more prima facia tortious conduct (Barden/Shipp [Exh.1]), Mr. Goodman interviewed self-professed serial killer Larry Nichols to again discuss this present lawsuit, which he described as “Clinton-esque”.

05:15 GOODMAN: There are two lawsuits pending against me, one from Robert David Steele and one from David Sweigert the brother of George Webb Sweigert. I wonder if these are not intended to put the type of reputation destruction and financial destruction on me that is the classic hallmark of these Clinton-esque tactics that you [Larry Nichols] now say have permeated the entire Democratic party. [emphasis added] EXHIBIT SIX [Exh.6]

7. In a video production distributed to the Defendant's entire social media empire on 10/26/2018 (EXHIBIT SEVEN [Exh.7]) the Defendant accuses the Plaintiff of mail fraud and fraud upon the court. This information was presented to a reporter of the Kremlin-friendly podcast network known as "Sputnik" named Lee Stranahan. Presumably Mr. Stranahan is yet another sidekick of CEO Goodman (Defendant).

1.04:52 GOODMAN: I have been busy with my own things. Talking about lawsuits I have been answering lawsuits from Dave Sweigert – we are going to be doing some more talking about that. I was just down at the .. uh.. 500 Pearl Street [laugh] at the Federal Court building submitting a document [Doc. No. 49, 10/26/2018]. It appears Dave Sweigert may – no sure – but there's evidence that indicates that he may be .. uh .. submitting fraudulent documents. Mail fraud. [emphasis added]||Exh.7|

(see YouTube video production at Internet URL
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=E3auCQb4oA> ) entitled “#MAGA Bomber Goes Postal with Special Guest Lee Stranahan”, posted 10/26/2018 viewed 8,971 times at the time of this writing. [Exh.7]

8. In a video production widely disseminated in a pervasive manner on 10/29/2018 (EXHIBIT EIGHT [Exh.8]), Mr. Goodman devotes nearly thirty (30) minutes to a discussion about the evidence preservation spoliation notice sent to Mr. Barden's attorney in Arizona [Exh.3]. Again, Mr. Goodman engages in his review of this present lawsuit on his YouTube podcast (distributed on other social media platforms). CEO Goodman also displays the Plaintiff's photograph with the sub-caption "DAVE SWEIGERT, EXPERT WITNESS."

1       29:03 GOODMAN: Now I have been extensively reviewing Mr. Sweigert's [laugh] civil suit against me
 2       and I find it to be totally frivolous and without merit; but of course, even if Michael 3       [Barden] were a legitimate witness in that civil action – what –does Michael's opinion of his criminal attorney have to do with that?

4       29:43 VUKADIN: [Brian Vukadinovich of Indiana speaking] As you can see here in the letter “as you are
 5       well aware Mr. Goodman has earnestly advised your client not to accept a plea bargain
 6       offered by the State of Arizona in Mr. Barden’s criminal case. See attached. Further,
 7       Mr. Barden has told this worldwide audience that he does not trust you as an attorney.”
[emphasis added]

8                     (see YouTube video production at Internet URL
 9                     <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GaqBL7PIK8E>) entitled “
 The Counterlawfare Report with Brian Vukadinovich – Outside Interference in Barden
 Criminal Trial”, posted 10/29/2018 viewed 2,575 times at the time of this writing.
EXHIBIT EIGHT [Exh.8]

10       9. Attached as EXHIBIT NINE [Exh.9] is a complaint filed by the Plaintiff (relying on private 11      attorney general (PAG) powers) with the Arizona Supreme Court that address alleged UPL practices of Defendant
 12      Goodman on his “COUNTER LAWFARE” social media podcast, with respects to Michael J. Barden’s criminal
 13      case in the State of Arizona. This evidence attached within the UPL complaint demonstrates Goodman’s obsession
 14      with the Plaintiff and his vindictive obsession with attacking the Plaintiff in a continuous, open-ended smear 15      campaign.

16       10. The implied defamation, trade libel, per se libel, and prima facia tortious conduct described above
 17      appear to be obvious. Goodman apparently is (1) attempting to litigate this present controversy via his vast social
 18      media empire, and (2) stand in the shoes of a quasi-attorney and dispense legal advice to third parties in a cavalier
 19      manner with little respect or due regard for the courts of the United States and its judicial protocols.

20       11. Further, Goodman and his sidekicks are now dispensing harmful legal advice to members of the 21      general public. CEO Goodman presumes to be standing in the shoes as a member of the bar and operates a 22      commercial profit-driven enterprise that receives pecuniary benefits for dispensing legal advice and opinions with 23      non-licensed non-attorneys.

2       III. A TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER (OR PROTECTIVE ORDER) AGAINST 3       DEFEDSANT GOODMAN, RESTRAINING HIM FROM MAKING EXTRA JUDICIAL
 4       STATEMENTS ABOUT THIS CASE, OR ABOUT THE PLAINTIFF, OR REFERRING TO 5       PLAINTIFF, OR POSTING ANY INFORMATION, DOCUMENTS, OR STATEMENTS
 6       ABOUT THE PLAINTIFF ON ANY OF THE DEFENDANT'S SOCIAL MEDIA OUTLETS
 7       (TO INCLUDE ACTING AS AN INTERVIEWEE ON OTHER PODCASTS).

10      12. It has long been settled that the federal courts retain their inherited judicial power to compel the 11 behavior of parties to litigation and to compel orders to cease the type of misconduct described above. The federal 12 Courts can exercise their inherent power in an independent manner to support judicial efficiency and the 13 expeditious flow of litigation. As more fully explained below, the time is ripe for this Court to curtail Defendant
 14 Goodman's out-of-control retaliation and vindictive attacks on the Plaintiff and his general pollution of social 15 media with his legal advice and opinions about criminal cases.

16

17       THIS IS NOT PRIOR RESTRAINT

18

19      13. The undeviating rule of this Court was expressed by Mr. Justice Holmes over a half century ago in 20 Patterson v. State of Colorado ex. Rel. Attorney General, 205 U.S. 454, 462 (1907):

21           ‘The theory of our system is that the conclusions to be reached in a case will be induced only by
 22 evidence and argument in open court, and not by any outside influence, whether of private talk or public
 23 print.’ See Sheppard v. Maxwell, 384 US 333, 351 (1966)

24

25      14. Freedom of discussion should be given the widest range compatible with the essential requirement
 26 of the fair and orderly administration of justice. See Pennekamp v. State of Florida, 328 U.S. 331, 347 (1946);
 27 Sheppard, 384 U.S. at 350-351. But it must not be allowed to divert the trial from the ‘very purpose of a court
 28 system * * * to adjudicate controversies, both criminal and civil, in the calmness and solemnity of the courtroom and legal procedures.’ Id citing Cox v. State of Louisiana, 379 U.S. 559, 583 (1965)(Black, J., dissenting).

30           ‘The right of the people to have a free press is a vital one, but so is the right to have a calm and 31 fair trial free from outside pressures and influences. Every other right, including the right of a free press
 32 itself, may depend on the ability to get judicial hearing as a dispassionate and impartial as the weakness
 33 inherent in men will permit’. State v. Van Duyne, 43 NJ 369 (1964) citing Craig v. Harney, 331 U.S. 367, 34 394 (1947) .

15. In the instant case, the Plaintiff is not seeking a protective order (or “gag order”) to restrain the press, or any news media coverage of this case. Further, the Plaintiff is not requesting that any pleadings or motions, or any other document filed with the Court be sealed. Instead, the Plaintiff is seeking a gag order to restrain Defendant CEO Goodman (by and through the use of MDSI/21stc3D) from making and encouraging any extra-judicial statements about this case, or about the Plaintiff, or discussing this case, referring to the Plaintiff on MDSI/21stc3D podcasts or any other type of social media outlet and restraining Goodman from posting and encouraging the publication of any information about the Plaintiff in social media outlets.

16. Defendant (CEO) Goodman is targeting the Plaintiff, harassing him, constantly making defamatory statements against the Plaintiff on a myriad of CSTT social media outlets and platforms. Goodman's misconduct of the previous months indicates he is clearly a vindictive person dead set on retaliating against the Plaintiff, for a legal action that Goodman himself encouraged via the 3/30/2018 e-mail message contained in

EXHIBIT TEN [Exh.10].

17. The Court will recall that Goodman has asserted that CSTT is a commercial enterprise and collects funds via the wires of the Internet via a New York charted corporation and a presumed licensed DBA moniker (see Multimedia System (Software) Design, Inc, (MDSI) and/or 21st Century 3D (21c3D)). Therefore, at best Defendant Goodman's MDSI/21stc3D broadcasts are a form of "trade/commercial speech" and are entitled less protection than the speech of a natural person, per se.

"From this line of reasoning, it is clear that while commercial speech is "protected" under the First Amendment from prior restraint, the protection afforded is less than that provided for noncommercial speech, so that when commercial expression is false or misleading it is afforded no protection whatsoever". See Quinn v. Aetna Life and Cas. Co., 96 Misc.2d 545, 554 (Queens.Cty.Sup.Ct.1978); Ohralik v. Ohio State Bar Ass'n, 436 US 447, 456 (1978).

18. Numerous examples could be cited of communications that are regulated without offending the First Amendment, such as employers' threats of retaliation for the labor activities of employees. Ohralik, 436 U.S. at 456. Further, a protective order in this case restraining the Defendant's speech, is not a prior restraint of the media or press coverage. Instead, it is simply a protective order restraining a future trial participant from making

1 any extra-judicial statements about this case, or speaking about the Plaintiff, whatsoever. See In re Application of
 2 Dow Jones & Company, Inc. et. al. 842 F.2d 603, 607 (2nd Cir. 1988) (“Gag” order restraining trial participants from 3 speaking to the press in criminal case from alleged corruption of public officials).

4       19.      The court again enunciated the principle that the State may intervene to protect the public from 5 harmful commercial speech in Ohralik, 436 U.S. at 462, by stating that:

6                 “the State has a legitimate and indeed ‘compelling’ interest in preventing those aspects of 7 solicitation that involve fraud, undue influence, intimidation, overreaching, and other forms of ‘vexatious
 8 conduct’”.

9       20.      As the Quinn court found that aspects of commercial speech can violate the State’s public policy
 10 as expressed in N.Y. Penal Law § 215.25 relative to jury tampering.

11                 “For that reason alone, the speech might properly be restrained as it has been held that the press is 12 not immune from statutes of general applicability.” Quinn supra at 556 citing Dennis v. United States, 341
 13 U.S. 494, 508, supra ; Branzberg v. Hayes, 408 US 665, 691-692 .

14       21.      More to the point is the reasoning stated in New York State Broadcasters Assn. v. United States,
 15 414 F.2d 990, 997 (2nd Cir.1969) .

16                 “The real point here is that we are not primarily in the realm of ideas at all but are chiefly 17 concerned with speech closely allied with the putting into effect of prohibited conduct”.

18       22.      Here the Court clearly has the authority to make such an order restraining Goodman from making
 19 any extra-judicial statements about the Plaintiff. The Court also has a duty to take precautionary safeguards, to 20 prohibit such conduct from further infecting this litigation, but also to protect the sanctity, of this court, and litigates
 21 that have the honor of bringing a claim before this Court, without fear that by doing so, they may face threats, 22 retaliation, and on-line harassment campaigns, waged by an opposing party and his fans, without any fear of facing consequences for his profit-driven behavior.

23       23.      Goodman’s vindictiveness and misconduct (through his commercial companies), against another
 24 party to litigation, has no room in this Court, and is reprehensible under our civil legal system and cannot be 25 tolerated by this Court, and should be sanctioned and restrained accordingly. Further, Goodman’s threats that he
 26 will expose the Plaintiff to further “crowdsourcing investigations” and encouraging his fans to do the same, is not only

1 vindictive and retaliatory, but is tantamount to extortion or coercion in the 2nd Degree under N.Y. Penal Law
 2 135.60(5) (“Expose a secret or publicize an asserted fact, whether true or false, tending to subject some person to
 3 hatred, contempt or ridicule.”).

5 IV. PLAINTIFF MEETS THE REQUIREMENT FOR THE ISSUANCE OF A PRELIMINARY
 6 INJUNCTION UNDER SECTIONS 349 AND 350 OF THE GENERAL BUSINESS LAW

7 24. The decision to grant a motion for a preliminary injunction is committed to the discretion of the 8 court. Doe v. Axelrod, 73 N.Y.2d 748, 750 (1988); Jiggets v. Perales, 202 A.D.2d 341, 342 (1st Dep’t 1994).
 9 Preliminary relief is only appropriate where (1) the moving party is likely to succeed ultimately on the merits of its 10 claim; (2) there exists the prospect of irreparable injury if the provisional relief is withheld; and (3) the balance of 11 equities tips in the moving party’s favor. Nobu Next Door LLC v. Fine Arts Hous., Inc. 4 N.Y.3d 839, 840 (2005).

12 25. Because the Plaintiff is seeking a preliminary injunction pursuant to N.Y. General Business Law
 13 §§ 349 and 350 (GBL), the irreparable harm analysis in this case differs from a traditional preliminary injunction
 14 analysis. Sections 349 and 350 on their face entitle private plaintiffs to seek injunctive relief so long as they have 15 suffered an injury as a result of the defendant’s deceptive acts or false advertising. See N.Y. GBL § 349(h).

16 26. Accordingly, courts have treated future irreparable harm to the public as sufficient to obtain a
 17 preliminary injunction order under N.Y. GBL §§ 349 or 350. See Marcus v. Jewish Nat'l Fund, 158 A.D.2d 101,
 18 105-06 (1st Dept. 1990). Regardless of whether the Plaintiff can in fact be required to prove irreparable harm in this
 19 case, the Plaintiff can make such a showing. As demonstrated herein, consumers and the public will suffer
 20 irreparable injuries unless Defendant’s deceptive acts, UPL opinions and false advertising are enjoined. To prove
 21 that a practice was deceptive within the meaning of N.Y. GBL Section 349, harmed consumers must show that (1)
 22 the act or practice was “consumer-focused,” (2) the act or practice was misleading in a material way, and (3) they
 23 suffered an injury as a result of the deceptive act. Stutman v. Chemical Bank, 95 N.Y.2d 24, 29 (2000). Plaintiff’s
 24 claims easily satisfy all three elements.

2 ISSUES RELATED TO ON-GOING MISREPRESTANTION BY MDSI/21stc3D PODCASTS

4       27.     As the Court is aware, N.Y. Executive Law § 63 authorizes the N.Y. Attorney General to 5 investigate such issues as fraud directed at consumers in violation of N.Y. GBL § 349(h). Pursuant to N.Y.
 6 Executive Law § 63(12) the term “fraud” includes “any device, scheme or artifice to defraud and any deceptions,
 7 misrepresentations, concealment, suppression, false pretense, false promise or unconscionable contractual
 8 provision.” Under the provisions of N.Y. Executive Law §63(12) it is not necessary to establish the elements of 9 common law fraud, such as reliance and intent to deceive, in order to establish liability for statutory fraud. People v.
 10 Apple Health & Sports Clubs, Ltd., 206 A.D.2d 266, 267 (App. Dep’t 1994) appeal denied 84 N.Y.2d 1004 (1994).
 11 The test of fraudulent conduct under Executive Law § 63(12) is whether the act “has the capacity or tendency to 12 deceive, or creates an atmosphere conducive to fraud”. People v. Apple Card Systems, Inc. 27 A.D.3d 104, 107 (3d
 13 Dep’t 2005), aff’d on other ground, 11 N.Y. 3d 105 (2008).

15 V. THE NEED FOR A NY CPLR § 6301 PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION
 16

17       28.     N.Y. CPLR § 6301 augments the power of the federal judiciary to rely on its inherent power to 18 issue injunctive relief. Orders issued pursuant to N.Y. CPLR §§ 6301 and 6313 are commonly used to protect 19 consumers that are harmed by the deceptive practices that violate N.Y. GBL § 349(h). See The People of the State
 20 of New York (by Eric T. Schneiderman) v. FanDual, Inc., New York County Clerk’s Index No. 453056/15.

21       29.     A preliminary injunction is available when plaintiffs can show that a defendant “threatens or is
 22 about to do, or is procuring or suffering to be done, an act in violation of the plaintiff’s rights respecting the subject
 23 of the action.” CPLR § 6301. Presently irreparable harm to the Plaintiff’s professional reputation continues.
 24 Notice that CEO Goodman includes the screen shot “David Sweigert, Expert Witness” [Exh.8] as a direct assault
 25 on the Plaintiff’s background as a cyber security expert witness. This is yet another instantiation of the trade libel
 26 that CEO Goodman inflicts upon the Plaintiff. Allowing Defendant Goodman to continue this course of action

1 (through his companies MDSI/21stc3D) of unlawful conduct (e.g. UPL, trade libel, wire fraud, etc.) will not only
 2 irreparably harm the Plaintiff, but injure citizens both inside and outside of the State of New York. See People v.
 3 Romero, 91 N.Y.2d 750, 756 (1998) (“the Legislature by statute has authorized equity to act and enjoin criminal
 4 behavior without the necessity of showing, in the individual case, that the public health or welfare was in danger”).

5       30.      Because Plaintiff is functioning as a private attorney general (PAG), he is broadly empowered to 6 protect the general public against deceptive acts and practices, and false advertising. See Marcus, 158 A.D.2d at 7 105-106, State v. Colo. St. Christian College of the Church of the Inner Power, 346 N.Y.S.2d 482, 487 (Sup. Ct.
 8 N.Y. Cty. 1973). These decisions stand against defendants – like CEO Goodman and his UPL sidekicks – who 9 would be permitted to continue their deceptive practices and false advertising, in violation of N.Y. GBL §§ 349 and 10 350, the public would suffer irreparable harm.

11       31.      Over the course of this litigation Defendant Goodman (using his companies MDSI/21stc3D) has 12 demonstrated over and over that he will not stop attacking the Plaintiff. Goodman has only increased the frequency
 13 and severity of these intimidation, defamation, UPL opinions, trade libel and per se libel attacks on the Plaintiff
 14 through the use of deceptive business practices that are unlawful on their face (see Arizona UPL rules).

15       32.      Balancing the equities “simply requires the court to look to the relative prejudice to each party
 16 accruing from a rant or denial of the requested relief.” Ma v. Lien, 198 A.D.2d 186, 187 (1st Dep’t 1993). Here,
 17 the prejudice that the Plaintiff – and the public at large – will suffer absent a preliminary injunction is all too clear.
 18 Defendant Goodman’s entire operation is illegal, and in violation of numerous civil and criminal statutes, including
 19 N.Y. GBL §§ 349-350, N.Y. Civil Rights Law §§ 50-51, the penal laws described above, the U.S. Federal trade
 20 Commission Act, and the common law (to name a few). There is simply no reason to allow Defendant (CEO)
 21 Goodman to continue exploiting the Plaintiff, nor is there any reason to allow Goodman (through his companies) to 22 act in open defiance of the foregoing cited laws. Allowing Goodman’s business to continue in any capacity creates 23 imminent risk of harm to the Plaintiff and consumers in general (see UPL antics).

25       VI.      PLAINTIFF ALSO SEEKS INJUNCTIVE RELIEF FOR GOODMAN’S VIOLATIONS OF 26 N.Y. CIVIL LAW §§ 50-51

27

1       33.     Section 50 of the New York Civil Rights Law provides:

2                 “A person, firm or corporation that uses for advertising purposes, or for the purposes of trade, the name, portrait or picture of any living person without having first obtained the written consent of such a person .... Is guilty of a misdemeanor.”

6       34.     Having defined the offense, and declaring it to be illegal, § 51 of the Civil Rights law goes on to provide civil remedies for the violation as well, including injunction and damages. Once the violation is established, the plaintiff may have an absolute right to an injunction, regardless of the relative damage to the parties. Onassis v. Christian Dior-New York., 472 N.Y.S.2d 254, 258 (NY.Sup.Ct. 1984). See Blumenthal v. Picture Classics, Inc. 257 N.Y.S. 800 (1st Dept. 1932), Loftus v. Greenwich Lithographing Co., 182 N.Y.S. 428 (1st Dept. 1920); Durgom v. CBS, 214 N.Y.S.2d 752 (1st Dept. 1961). In Onassis, the Court posed a simple question “Is there a violation?” Onassis, 472 N.Y.S.2d at 258.

8       35.     In order to establish a violation under N.Y. Civil Rights Law §§ 50 – 51, a plaintiff must demonstrate that the defendant used the plaintiff’s name, portrait, picture or voice in the State of new York for purposes of advertising or trade, without the plaintiff’s expressed written permission. See Leviston v. Jackson, 980 N.Y.S.2d 716, 719 (1st Dept. 2013). “Civil rights Law § 51 authorizes a civil action for injunctive relief and damages, including exemplary damages if a defendant acts knowingly in violation of that protection.” Leviston, 980 N.Y.S.2d at 719-720; Ryan v. Volpone Stamp Co., 107 F.Supp.2d 369, 391 (S.D.N.Y. 2000).

10                 “The principle to be distilled from a study of statute and of cases construing it is that all persons, of whatever station in life, from the relatively unknown to the world famous, are to be secured against rapacious commercial exploitation ... [I]t is intended to protect the essence of the person, his or her identity or persona from being unwillingly or unknowingly misappropriated for the profit of another.” Onassis, 472 N.Y.S.2d at 260.

11
12       36.     Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks redress under N.Y. Civil Rights Law §§ 50-51 for Defendant (CEO) Goodman’s “rapacious commercial exploitation” of his name, image, photograph, and likeness.

13
14       37.     The content created by Defendant (CEO) Goodman and his sidekicks is meant solely to harass, injure and intimidate the Plaintiff. Such reprehensible conduct, and potentially criminal actions alleged herein, are in no way newsworthy, or entitled to protection under New York’s Civil Rights Law §§ 50-51. Instead, Defendant

1 Goodman (and his trade/commercial enterprises [MDSI/21stc3D]) conduct is exactly the type of conduct forbidden
 2 by §§ 50-51. In the case of a former first lady (Mrs. John F. Kennedy) the court was clear “as a public figure she
 3 has not forfeited her right of privacy and does not become a subject for commercial exploitation.” Onassis,
 4 472 N.Y.S.2d at 263. See Woody Allen v. National Video, Inc. 610 F.Supp 612 (SDNY 1985).

6 VII. SUMMARY / RELIEF REQUESTED

 8 38. As has been demonstrated above, Defendant (CEO) Godman’s entire organization is a sham.
 9 Accordingly, the prejudice that he will suffer as a result of an injunction is minimal. Because CEO Godman’s
 10 entire operation is per se illegal, the only harm that will directly accrue to Defendant (CEO) Godman as a result of 11 an injunction is that he will be restrained from doing what is already forbidden: operating an illegal company
 12 whose entire business model relies on defaming, harassing, misappropriating, UPL opinion making, threatening,
 13 and using, Plaintiff’s name, image, likeness, photographs, private information, interfering with business associates,
 14 and worst, for Godman’s own perverse financial gain.

15 39. Plaintiff knows all too well the personal and financial pain wrought by Defendant (CEO)
 16 Godman, and his co-conspirator sidekicks, and the Plaintiff now seeks an injunction in the hopes of preventing 17 any future injuries, to himself, or others, and so that the Plaintiff can fairly litigate this case, and continue his 18 business, and his life without fear of reprisals or retaliation from the likes of Defendant (CEO) Godman.

19 40. A gag order against Godman to prohibit any further discussions of this honorable Court, the 20 present lawsuit and/or the Plaintiff is not only warranted, but imperative to remedy the damage caused by the 21 Defendant’s rolling intrinsic misconduct concerning the Court’s processes, and Godman’s continuous extrinsic
 22 tortious conduct of implied libel, trade libel and defamation per se against the plaintiff and open mockery of the 23 Court.

24 41. The Plaintiff claims there is a need to preserve the fairness of the adjudicatory process and that the 25 federal courts may rely on their inherent power in correcting the totality of abusive behavior that is presented to 26 them (Goodman’s intrinsic and extrinsic misconduct). Here, Godman’s continued social media misconduct has a

1 direct, indirect, explicit and implicit impact on these proceedings. By its own inherent powers of discretion this
2 Court may apply a gag order upon Goodman; a party to this present lawsuit.

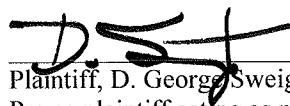

3       42.      The bulk of evidence that has been presented to this Court thus far by the Plaintiff, indicates that
4 Defendant Goodman is creating a social media circus and attempting to make the Plaintiff appear as a Dr. Sam
5 Sheppard (The Fugitive) type of character for Goodman's personal profit driven motivations. The carnival
6 atmosphere of "CrowdSource The Truth" (complete with self-professed serial killers (Nichols), disorderly citizens
7 armed with weapons (Barden), and ex-CIA disgruntled employees (Shipp)) makes the judicial processes of this
8 Court vulnerable to continued open mockery by injecting prejudicial publicity into these proceedings. Enough is 9 enough.

10       43.      In normal circumstances a court would be loath to command prior restraint on expression by the 11 news media. However, Goodman is a party to this litigation, a direct participant. The Defendant is not a local 12 newspaper interested in a trial at the county courthouse. Here, Goodman's tortious "expression" is the core of this 13 litigation.

David Brock, Peter W Smith and Arkansas – Larry Nichols Remembers "Troopergate"

4,857 views

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

05:15 GOODMAN: There are two lawsuits pending against me, one from Robert David Steele and one from David Sweigert the brother of George Webb Sweigert. I wonder if these are not intended to put the type of reputation destruction and financial destruction on me that is the classic hallmark of these Clinton-esque tactics that you [Larry Nichols] now say have permeated the entire Democratic party.

[10/23/2018]

As Robert Mueller's Special Counsel's Office nears the end of its rope, he and his cohorts grasp desperately for anything that can remotely resemble evidence of wrongdoing. The May 2017 death of Peter Smith has come back into the news cycle as the "Russia Collusion" narrative gets sloppily pinned on a dead man. Peter's history investigating criminal activity by Bill and Hillary Clinton is worthy of additional review. Larry joins me to share his first hand experience and recollections of Troppergate, a Clinton scandal Peter W Smith was directly linked to.

There appears to be a prima facia concern for the programming of these social media videos, as apparent legal opinions are expressed by Mr. Vukadinovich and Mr. Goodman, that may rise to the level of “expressing legal opinions”, see Rule 31, Arizona Supreme Court.

The practice of law is defined by Arizona Supreme Court Rule. Rule 31(a)(2)(A) states:

Practice of law means providing legal advice or services to another by:

- Preparing a document in any medium intended to affect or secure legal rights for a specific person or entity;
- Preparing or expressing legal opinions;
- Representing another in a judicial, quasi-judicial, or administrative proceedings, or other formal dispute resolution process such as arbitrations and mediations;
- Preparing any document through any medium for filing in any court, administrative agency or tribunal for a specific person or entity; or
- Negotiating legal rights or responsibilities for a specific person or entity.

What is the “unauthorized practice of law”?

Partial transcript in the above cited video:

0:29:50 BARDEN: The advice you're giving me right now is good advice and I have really thought that through over and over and over.

0:33:17 VUKADIN: One thing that you need to think about is this .. in terms of your plea .. you plea negotiations is this. If you don't have a jury trial , demand right now , they know , they know that you have a better chance of .. you know .. to get acquitted with a jury. And I am a little worried you may have waived that right and there may be a rule in that court on a certain time period that you have to assert that right. So you should actually assert your right to a jury trial. Whether or not you end up ... you know ... taking the case to trial. Cause you may have waived that right.

0:41:53 GOODMAN: Perhaps, perhaps, that's not what you need to do. Uh, one thing we hear very often in legal matters ... you don't want to .. we have heard Larry Klayman say .. that judges don't give opinions unless they need to. So, perhaps all you need to do is to present the evidence that you never wielded a gun and stick to that.

0:42:30 GOODMAN: If the lawyer is telling you all this stuff, perhaps the lawyer is running interference between you and the judge.

0:42:38 BARDEN: It really does feel like it.

Partial transcript in the above cited video:

0:51:00 GOODMAN: Once you start making deals with them .. then .. you rights and the law go out the window. You're adhering to a deal.

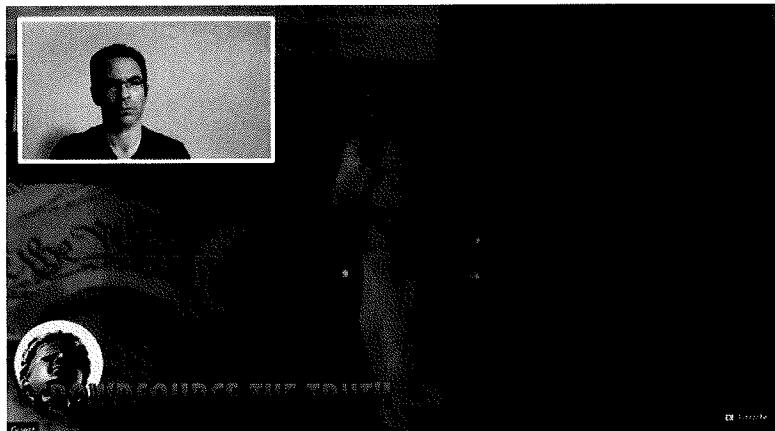

0:51:08 BARDEN: Yeah, I can't revisit the case. I can't go back to these people.

0:51:10 GOODMAN: I do not think you should take a plea deal Michael. I think that's the way they are trying to ...

0:52:34 GOODMAN: I say .. you know what ..it's like playing Black Jack, if you play by the rules that the dealer plays by you seem to do better. So, do what they do, delay it, you know, do whatever you can to make the hearing happen later ...

0:52:58 GOODMAN: I think you have to avoid the plea deal. I think they are trying to box you into a corner to force you to accept a plea deal .. and look at everything you told me. The lawyer tricked you into taking this psychological evaluation, the lawyer is sorta .. maybe encouraging you to take this plea deal. I don't think you should.

0:53:17 BARDEN: I don't think I should either. And it feel like I never got any kind of .. not head start ... from the time this started I have been spinning my wheels already.

( Internet URL: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GaqBL7PlK8E> )

0:48:22 VUKADIN: In Michael's case, just ask yourself one question. Why won't the Maricopa prosecutor's office produce those tapes to him? Just ask yourself that question. The answer is very obvious, there is something on those tapes that clears Michael of the charge they filed against him. That's why it is inappropriate for the prosecutor to be trying to force, to shove, a plea bargain down Michael's throat, while at the same time withholding that potential exculpatory evidence. So, if anybody watching this show tonight takes away anything at all, and I said this once statement in my book, keep an eye on your lawyers and don't blink.

0:49:20 GOODMAN: Interesting. Why hasn't the judge said where is this exculpatory evidence Brian? It's just not the judge's job?

Mr. David George Sweigert,

Mental illness is a serious matter, you need to seek help. You are hurting yourself by generating a growing collection of evidence that indicates very strongly that you are engaged in an organized criminal harassment campaign against me personally as well as other serious potentially criminal offenses. Every person you have CC'd on this message fully realizes that no actual lawyer would send anonymous messages from the "Evidence Collection" department and the messages themselves represent harassment as I have instructed you to terminate communications with me.

I have submitted my evidence against you to the NY FBI field office and anticipate they will contact you soon. If you'd like to challenge me in civil court, I invite you to file your complaint. It will merely save me the filing fees when I counter sue you for the well documented slander and defamation campaign you have been waging which includes per se libel among other civil torts and potential criminal actions on your part.

You are making matters far worse for yourself every day. My friendly advice is that you cease and desist and discontinue your harassment and / or any mention of me or my company moving forward.

Jason Goodman
